

GB There was an Old Lady...

Contents:

4 old lady playing boards, 28 animal picture cards, 1 animal size guide

Setting up

- Each player chooses an old lady playing board.
- The animal size guide is assembled and placed, face up, on the table, in view of all players.
- The animal picture cards are spread out, face down, on the table.

Object

To be the first player to collect all the animal cards in the correct size sequence, starting with the smallest, on their old lady playing board.

To play

- The youngest player begins by picking up one of the cards from the table, showing it to all players.
- If the card they have picked up, is a fly, they place it face up on their old lady playing board singing the line from the song. If it is any other animal they return it, face down, to the table.
- Play then continues in a clockwise direction with each player trying to collect the animals in the sequence shown on the animal size guide, singing the line from the song each time they pick up the correct animal card. Each card is placed on top of the previous card in the sequence on their old lady board.

The winner

The winner is the first player to pick up all the animal cards in the correct sequence placing them on their old lady board, at which time everybody sings the song from beginning to end.
